

STONE PRESENTATIONS

2024 Fall NEARC Conference

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27

New York State K-12 Geography Education with ArcGIS Online

9:15 - 9:45 a.m. | Room: Montpelier C

GIS Specialist Paige Gebhardt will join Jeff Herter, special projects manager for the New York Department of State, to talk about Kids MapVenture, a website for kids in grades 3 to 6 to learn geography. The Stone team built the website with ArcGIS Hub, ArcGIS StoryMaps and an ArcGIS Instant App.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 29

ArcGIS Online and Hub: Using ArcGIS Online to Connect Vermonters to the Internet

11–11:30 a.m. | Room: Green Mountain B

GIS Specialist Mary Haley will be discussing Vermont's push to extend broadband internet access to all parts of the rural state. Stone has empowered the Vermont Community Broadband Board by providing tools for data management. Learn how we're using ArcGIS Hub, ArcGIS Dashboards, and Experience Builder to bridge the digital divide.

Dive Deeper Into Technical Skills 1: Custom ArcGIS Widget Development and the GIS Cloud

2:30–3 p.m. | Room: Lake Champlain A

Front End Developer Chris Aragon will guide you in using JavaScript frameworks and design principles to create custom Esri widgets in ArcGIS Experience Builder. He'll share the New York Geographic Information Gateway web app, which aims to democratize New York's geospatial data for various purposes.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30

Dive Deeper into Technical Skills 2: Using Microsoft Power Apps and Power Automate with an ArcGIS Enterprise Geodatabase

8:30–9 a.m. | Room: Lake Champlain A

Geospatial Data & Solutions Team Leader Nick Floersch will show you how to streamline spatial data updates using Microsoft Power Apps and Power Automate with an ArcGIS Enterprise Geodatabase. This setup enables easy form-based editing with live map views in ArcGIS Experience Builder. He'll provide a walkthrough and share one example of how to integrate a PowerApp inside ArcGIS Experience Builder.

For more information about our presentations, please contact Nick Floersch (nfloersch@stone-env.com) or Paige Gebhardt (pgebhardt@stone-env.com).